

Maxim in Haiku 34-36

Do what God wishes
whether successful or not.
God knows your effort.

In your undertakings, see to it that God alone is their inspiration and their goal; that in their execution you never turn aside from God's holy will, and as for the result, remain completely indifferent whether they succeed or not, desiring that in all and by all the will of God would be perfectly fulfilled, a will that you should equally recognize and love when your plans are delayed and even destroyed and when you see their advancement and successful development. Maxim 34

What you are and do is seen by God; choose wisely.
Yield to God's esteem.

Convince yourself that wherever you are and whatever you do God sees you clearly and distinctly; do not do in God's presence what you would not dare to do in the presence of a person you should esteem. Maxim 35

All for God's glory
let reason and duty guide.
Look for God's wisdom.

Let your affections and actions be guided by reason and duty and not by caprice and natural inclinations. Maxim 36
