Overview

We are pleased to report that you, our donors, have generously supported our fundraising activities during the period July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014. The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston received 9,714 gifts totaling approximately $1,900,000.00. This includes: individual private donors, grants, event revenue, foundation support, estate gifts, as well as the revenue from our card and In Lieu of Flowers programs.

Semi-Annual Appeals

We received 2,417 donations to the General Fund through our Fall 2013 and Spring 2014 appeals and through the use of envelopes from CONNECTING magazine. These gifts totaled $332,526. Of this sum, $17,063 was designated for our elderly and infirm sisters.

National and Diocesan Collections for Retired Religious Sisters

We receive proceeds from national and diocesan collections for retired religious sisters. You may have contributed to these funds through your own parishes. This year, we were awarded $325,929 from these collections.

Designated Gifts

Donors contributed a total of $23,920 for the following projects: Human Trafficking, the Motherhouse Chapel, and Holy Spirit Garden in Brighton.

In Honor of and Memorial Cards and In Lieu of Flowers Programs

We realized a significant increase in support for our Honor Cards for the Living, Memorial Cards, and In Lieu of Flowers programs. We were blessed with 6,087 donations through these programs totaling $102,554.

Fundraising Events

Our annual October Fall Luncheon for the Allston/Brighton community was well received and realized $5,255 in gifts, which were equally shared between The Women’s Table and The Literacy Connection.

Partners in Ministry

The Partners in Ministry program recognizes those who have chosen to remember us in their wills and estate plans. This year, we received $317,238 as non-restricted donations from planned gifts and $26,389 designated especially for the care of our elderly and infirm sisters.

CSJ Ministries

In addition to the funding received for our congregation ministries through the Office of Mission Advancement activities, these ministries engage in additional fundraising activities in order to fulfill their mission. Congregation ministries include: Casserly House in Roslindale, The Women’s Table and The Literacy Connection in Brighton, and St. Joseph Retreat Center in Cohasset.

Casserly House raised $40,906 in donations and $42,450 in grants. These gifts fund the newsletter, adult literacy and summer camp programs, as well as other ongoing programs. The Literacy Connection received $40,700 through grants and $16,309 through individual donations. St. Joseph Retreat Center received $8,590 in donations for general support and $3,949 in temporarily restricted donations for furnishings and various other items. The Women’s Table, in addition to the proceeds from its inaugural event, raised $13,250 in gifts for the support and empowerment of women.
Dear Friends,

St. Paul’s greeting in his letter to the Ephesians is one which is ours for you. "We cease not giving thanks for you, always making mention of you in our prayers." As our 140th anniversary year concludes, our hearts are full of gratitude for each of you who so thoughtfully gift us with your donations and remembrances. Your generosity greatly enhances the life and works of our sisters and energizes us as we plan for the present and future life of the Congregation.

As Sisters of St. Joseph, we continue to be about many meaningful and exciting things. A good number of our sisters and associates are forwarding the CSJ mission and charism through their dedicated work in our Congregation ministries: The Literacy Program, Casserly House, the Women’s Table, and St. Josephs Retreat Center. Many of our sisters are also actively engaged in ministry at our sponsored schools: Regis College, Fontbonne Academy, St. Joseph Preparatory High School, and the Jackson-Walnut Park Schools. Others also bring our CSJ presence to the Bethany Hill School Apartment community as well as to their own particular ministries and local parishes.

Places of special remembrance are Bethany Health Care Center and St. Joseph Hall where, each day, our sisters are about the ministry of accompaniment and intentional remembrance of you in their prayers. On a recent visit to Bethany, I once again observed Sister Greta, our oldest sister at 103, sitting in her wheel chair praying for her long list of accumulated intentions in which you have a special place of remembrance.

During the fall, I had the opportunity of co-leading a CSJ Heritage pilgrimage to Le Puy, France, for sisters and associates from throughout the United States and Canada. As we stood in the simple French kitchen where our first sisters began our community, I had a profound awareness that what they began in such an ordinary way has evolved into a powerful presence of Sisters of St. Joseph and Associates throughout the world. As I stood in this space - so sacred to our heritage, our mission, and our spirituality, my prayer was that we be as open and enthused about God’s invitation to serve the “dear neighbor” of our time and as courageous in our response as our first sisters, knowing full well this can only happen through your continued support and generosity.

With gratitude,

Rosemary Brennan, CSJ, President

Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston 3
As the celebration of our 140th year comes to a close, I am happy to share with you our 2013/2014 Advancement Giving Report for the period July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2014. To all of you who were so generous, supporting our semi-annual appeals, sponsoring and attending our events, using our card and In Lieu of Flowers programs—THANK YOU! I would also like to express gratitude to those kind people who remembered the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston through their wills and estates. Your thoughtfulness makes our continued work possible.

You probably know that our sisters who are physically able are fully engaged in ministering to the “dear neighbor” in schools, nursing homes, parishes, social service agencies, one to one outreach and more, in ways too numerous to list on this page! Did you also know that additionally, our sisters connect “neighbor with neighbor and neighbor with God” through four ministries staffed and supported by this Congregation? These are The Literacy Connection and The Women’s Table in Brighton, Casserly House in Roslindale and St. Joseph Retreat Center in Cohasset. In this issue, we take you inside to meet the dedicated sisters, associates, and qualified tutors who staff these ministries and learn about their programs.

As you enjoy the crisp air and God’s autumn palette, know that we hold you in our hearts and prayers and are grateful for every gift you bestow on us!

Carol Mack
Director of Mission Advancement

If you need more information, wish to make a special gift, discuss leaving a legacy gift to the sisters in your estate, please call me at 617-746-2115.

The front cover photographs represent the following ministries The Literacy Connection, St. Joseph Retreat Center, The Women’s Table, and Casserly House. The story of the Sisters of St. Joseph springs from a small group of courageous women. They were lace makers who wove a pattern of inclusive love across 17th century France and across the world. Over 360 years later we continue to weave the threads of God’s generous love in our families, our neighborhoods, and our world. Back cover: Retreat participants gather for welcoming remarks before the beginning of a directed retreat at St. Joseph Retreat Center, Cohasset, MA.
We have, once again, received phone calls and notes from our friends, relatives, and donors saying that they have received solicitations from the Sisters of St. Joseph of Springfield.

We share many things with our Springfield sisters: history, tradition, friendship, community, and a passion for mission. We do not share finances. We do not share our mailing list with any other group. Nonprofits can purchase mailing lists from magazines and companies. The Springfield sisters do, and that is why you receive their mailings.

Our mailings always have our logo:

Our mailing address is always:

Please be sure your gift reaches its intended destination.

On October 31, 2014, Boston Mayor Marty Walsh spoke eloquently to a crowd of approximately 175 people about the sisters’ influence in his life and the importance of programs like The Literacy Connection and The Women’s Table to the people of the city of Boston. The occasion was our 7th annual Fall Luncheon.

Representative Kevin Honan was honored with the CSJ Community Service Award - recognizing his love for and service to the Allston/Brighton community. In an especially memorable moment, Sister Maureen Doherty, Assistant President of the Sisters of St. Joseph and Sister Pat Andrews, Director of The Literacy Connection, donned top hats and serenaded Kevin with their customized version of “One Singular Sensation.” Margarita Montero, a former student of The Literacy Connection spoke movingly about the impact the program had on her life. Everyone attending enjoyed a wonderful lunch provided by Devlin’s Bistro & Pub, Brighton, MA. We are looking forward to 2015!
We, Sisters of St. Joseph and Associates, thank you and keep you constantly in our prayers. Your ongoing support enables us to care for our elderly and infirm sisters and to reach out to the “dear neighbor” daily. Your support also helps us to continue our service to God’s people through our diverse ministries. We have listed your names in this issue of CONNECTING as part of our accountability. The following list reflects those who have made donations through our Office of Mission Advancement or on behalf of our Congregation ministries from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014.

The Literacy Connection

by Sister Pat Andrews,
Director of The Literacy Connection

The Literacy Connection reaches out especially to adults most in need of services, to provide English language skills and a pathway to U.S. Citizenship. This in turn opens opportunities for themselves and their families. It builds stronger communities, and the social and cultural fabric of our society is enriched. Sister Pat Andrews often thinks of the roots of the Sisters of St. Joseph in terms of her current day ministry.

In 1873, when four Sisters of St. Joseph from Brooklyn, NY arrived in Boston, they found themselves in a city full of immigrants, and four days later they opened a school for 200 children. Twenty-seven years ago, The Literacy Connection came into being with that same concern for helping an immigrant population (this time adults) alleviate language differences.

At the Celebration of Achievement and Gratitude in June 2014, I opened the program with these words of thanks and praise: “Not long ago, our nation lost one of its ‘Renaissance Women’, Maya Angelou. Ms. Angelou was a renowned African-American poetess, writer, actress, dancer and political activist. Her words were an inspiration to many. One particular quote aptly describes you today, dear students. Maya Angelou once said, “You may not control all the events that happen to you, but you can decide not to be reduced by them.” You have endured hardships, set-backs, and for some, violent situations; but the hope for a better future and opportunities for your families have spurred you on. We recognize and congratulate you – your efforts and desire to speak English, to become more involved in your communities and for many to become United States citizens. You are a gift to us! Your sacrifices, motivation, concern for family and your abundant JOY are an example for us.

As Sisters of St. Joseph, we often use the word “charism”. Wikipedia describes charism as a gift that flows from God’s love to us to help us perform our task in the Church. To our dedicated tutors - you are charism to The Literacy Connection. Without your generous gift of time, creativity, and concern, our program would not be able to function. Along with the “thank you” expressed by our students, we add our heartfelt gratitude as well. And to our benefactors and donors - your great-hearted and generous support has carried The Literacy Connection through all these years partnering with us as we strive to break down barriers and build an inclusive society. To all: You are ever a part of our lives; all the good you have shared will live on in our hearts.

After serving on the CSJ Leadership Team from 1994-2000, Sister Pat became the director of The Literacy Connection. In 2005, The Literacy Connection established a Citizenship Preparation program that has helped over 115 people become U.S. citizens. Sister Pat is a highly visible contributor to many organizations in the Allston/Brighton area. Sister Pat also celebrates her Golden Jubilee this year.

Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston 15
In 1974 Sister Roberta Marie Brown and I were assigned to begin St. Joseph Retreat Center. The Directed Retreat Movement was in its prime. The congregation was deliberating about having a House of Prayer, and our insightful leadership team had begun training sisters in spirituality.

After participating in The Institute of Religious Formation Program (IRF) at St. Louis University from 1972-1973, my ministry as Coordinator of Ongoing Formation Programs included using the Villa in Cohasset for weekend retreats and longer directed retreats during school vacation weeks. These programs were well-responded to by sisters and influenced the decision to officially identify and open St. Joseph Villa as a Retreat Center in October 1974. Since 1947, it had served as a summer vacation house for the congregation.

OVER 40 YEARS: IMMEDIATE AND GRADUAL CHANGES

Immediate changes were made inside the facility. Electrical outlets were put in all rooms. Ceilings on the first and second floors were lowered about 15 inches. Rooms began to be divided, and the capacity gradually grew from 12 bedrooms to our present 20 private bedrooms. Seven bathrooms have increased to 11 private bathrooms. Programs were constantly offered to meet the changing needs.

During the past year we accommodated 4,762 guests who came seeking God, quiet, peace, balm for the soul, and balance in life. Seventy-four percent of these guests are lay people.

We offer Mornings of Prayer, Directed and Private Retreats, an At-Home Retreat for Busy People, Individual Spiritual Direction, and a Contemplative Sabbatical Program. Some calendar dates are kept for hosted groups such as prayer groups, parish, academic and medical personnel, religious leaders, CSJ Associates, sponsored ministry staffs. St. Joseph Retreat Center’s opportunities extend to Milton and Brighton, Massachusetts where we offer individual spiritual direction and ongoing professional development programs for spiritual directors and retreat directors. Of the 96 people who have participated in the eight-month Spiritual Direction Internship Initiative, 70 are lay people and 26 are religious or clergy.

The mission of St. Joseph Retreat Center is a pristine way for the Sisters of St. Joseph to live and share their earnest desire for harmony within oneself, with God, in human relationships and in all creation.
IN APPRECIATION AND CELEBRATION

We ask guests, “What did you like best about your time at St. Joseph Retreat Center?” Some responses:

• “How does one even answer such a question? The prayerful space, natural beauty, outstanding food, the silence, everything!”
• “The quality of direction I received.”
• “I cannot choose from the many gifts! What brings my soul to peace and tears to my eyes is the warmth and love that wraps around me the minute I step into this place. This is coming home!”
• “I deeply appreciate the Sisters of St. Joseph making this sacred space so available for us.”

In this fortieth year, we give thanks for your generosity in the past. We are deeply grateful for and rely on your partnership in this precious ministry.

INTO THE FUTURE

Let God lure you here for renewal if it’s possible. Visit us at www.csjretreatcenter.org. We dare to dream of installing an elevator for easier access to all floors. We face additional structural improvements. Perhaps you can contribute to this dream and incredible ministry through a donation, a private or family foundation or a corporate grant. Your prayers for our future and your volunteer help are priceless and deeply appreciated as well. And, most of all, be one with us in our gratitude and celebration of God’s lavish blessings on all who have worked and prayed here over the past forty years.

During many celebrations of 125 years in Boston, the Sisters of Saint Joseph pondered different ways we could “give back” to Boston in gratitude for our years spent together. On January 6, 2000, the sisters responded to this discernment and bought a three-decker on Stellman Road in Roslindale, which would be called Casserly House.

The idea of a neighborhood house was not a new one - the original incarnation of this ministry was begun in LePuy, France, 1650, by six Sisters of St. Joseph. In 1873, four sisters opened our first Boston convent at St. Thomas Parish in Jamaica Plain where days later they started our first school. Casserly House, named for Mother Regis Casserly, was opened in Roslindale in 2000 in celebration of these first beginnings.

The first days on Stellman Road were spent readying our new home to be lived in while also talking with neighbors about their needs. Adult immigrants cried out for a place to learn English, to gain work skills, and a place that would offer immigration help. The youth came to our door looking for school help, struggling to combat our neighborhood’s high dropout rate. Our background as educators led us to meet these needs with two primary services: our morning English language program and our after-school homework program.

In addition to these two successful programs, we became involved with the reality of other neighborhood challenges in other ways. We joined with our neighbors to clean the area and partnered with the police and the city to address the everyday violence that marked our streets. Now, 14 years later, our streets are quieter and safer thanks to these first days of community-building. We continue to work together to maintain this community.

Then and now, Casserly House finds support in the tireless work of volunteers from the greater Boston area who donate their time and gifts to further the mission of our center. Additionally, we are grateful for continuous, generous contributions from donors, foundations, and organizations across the country. These offerings of time and resources are vital to sustaining our work.

Below: Sister Ann Kaufman speaks to students at the Casserly House summer camp, Sister Helen Callahan tutors a student, and tutor Donna Sullivan teaches English to adult learners.
I, Sister Nancy Braceland, have been a part of this spirit-filled journey since we began. Being with the “dear neighbor” in the daily struggles and joys has incarnated our charism of reconciliation, of oneness, which continues to reap fruit each day, week, and year. Our legacy is already seeing men and women get jobs, begin to become serious students, and become citizens. Our first young students are now college students and graduates, grateful for the opportunity to finish high school and begin living bigger dreams. At Casserly House, it is a gift to live and walk with our neighbors each day as we remain rooted in Boston and open to the world, committed to fostering community on Stellman Road and in the larger global community.

Above: Former Mayor Thomas Menino, a long time Casserly House supporter and advocate visited regularly, and Sister Nancy greets children as they arrive for a field trip.

ever-widening circles of love and compassion continue to lead The Women’s Table toward new and unique paths. These travels might include: supporting young women living in shelters, companioning a woman to District Court to obtain a restraining order, to a Family Resource Center, or mediation hearings, or traveling to a foreign consulate. It might also include consulting with immigration centers or community health clinics, or visiting women who are home-bound, and more.

As The Women’s Table approaches its sixth year, new programs continue to evolve and develop. This fall, for example, The Women’s Table hosted two six-week Restorative Justice Circles for homeless adolescents and young mothers living at Bridge over Troubled Waters. Promoting communication skills, conflict management strategies and self-esteem were primary goals of this program. Funded by the CSJ Unity and Non-Violence Grant, these programs created a ‘safe space’ for these young women living in two different shelters to share their experiences. They are able to talk about healthy vs. unhealthy relationships, to learn about personality temperaments, and related effects in community living, and more. This promotes a greater sense of unity and community.

Another innovative program unfolding is a Writer’s Workshop for women who struggle with written expression. This program underscores how The Women’s Table helps women ‘find their voice.’ Sacred Circles, for women experiencing grief and loss, have also met for six consecutive weeks this fall. One participant expressed this feeling, “This is one place where I can really express myself; I feel safe in the company of other women.”

Individual advocacy and companioning women moves The Women’s Table forward, toward ever-new and expanding directions. Please consider supporting these evolving programs and individual advocacy by volunteering your time or talent, or making a donation to The Women’s Table. On behalf of numerous women served by our different programs, we thank you! †

Embracing and living out the values of the Sisters of St. Joseph, especially the centrality of relationship and unioning love, is not unfamiliar to Mary Rita Weschler, CSJA, the director of The Women’s Table. She has been a lay associate with the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston for 25+ years, and has degrees in Deaf Education and Counseling Psychology. She’s held a variety of teaching positions and other roles supporting children and families across the country.
Participants share while attending The Women’s Table Multicultural Circle.

Open conversations transpire during the Writer’s Workshop for women.

Mary Rita offers support and advice to an individual looking for assistance.

Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston 31
Join us as a “Partner In Ministry”

Enrollment in “Partners in Ministry” is the way we recognize those generous people who have chosen to leave a legacy gift to the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston with a planned gift in their estates. A planned gift is an excellent way to say thank you to the sisters who have touched your life and to ensure that the vital ministries of the congregation are able to continue serving the next generation.

Your gift, through a bequest in your will (or other planned gift vehicle such as a trust, an annuity, property, an IRA, stocks or life insurance) will be used to provide care for our elderly and infirm sisters and will provide for the continuation of our ministries. Truly you become our “Partner in Ministry”.

We would like to recognize your thoughtful gift during your lifetime. If you are planning to leave a legacy gift to the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Boston, please complete the simple form below, and we will enroll you as a Partner in Ministry and send you an enrollment certificate. Thank you!

Choosing our cards is a generous way of celebrating the lives of relatives and friends. Throughout the year, those you honor with a card are remembered in prayer by the Sisters of St. Joseph and Associates.

We encourage our donors to request that their family and friends remember the Congregation by sending donations “in lieu of flowers.” All donations are acknowledged by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston Office of Mission Advancement. If you wish to make a donation, know someone who would like to, or are in need of cards for a relative or friend, please contact Cheryl Duggan, Mission Advancement Coordinator, at 617-746-2114 or email cheryl.duggan@csjboston.org.

To make a donation online, visit www.csjboston.org and find the “make a gift” box.

The below represent sample cards - more designs are available at http://www.csjboston.org/join-our-mission/donate-now/memorial-and-all-occasion-card-programs/
