Pilgrimage for Life

Barbara McHugh, CSJ and four juniors from Arlington Catholic High School recently participated in the Pilgrimage for Life in Washington, D.C. Barbara and the students were part of a delegation of more than 400 students and young adults from the Archdiocese of Boston who ventured to pray in Washington, DC, on the 40th anniversary of Roe vs. Wade. The group encountered snow and cold temperatures, but their hearts were on fire with the words of Cardinal Joseph Bernadin -- "seamless garment -- all life is valuable from womb to tomb". *

The purposes of the Joint Meeting are to affirm the sponsorship model, strengthen the bonds that unite us, and engage in effective communication on issues of importance to the Sponsored Ministries.
