

Diane Griffin, CSJA

I was born in Hanover, MA, and I have been a life-long parishioner at St. Mary's Church in Hanover, MA. After graduation from Hanover High School, I earned an Associate Degree in Business Administration at Massasoit Community College, Brockton, MA, and then I took some courses at Aquinas Junior College, Milton, MA, and attended Harvard Extension School, Cambridge, MA. My father owned a family-run transportation business, James E. Griffin & Sons, Inc., and I worked there for 20 years before I started a career in the Federal Government. During my employment in the Federal Government, I won the Greater Boston Federal Executive Board Award twice. In 2010, I retired from the Federal Government after 30 years of service. For the past five years, I have been volunteering at the Cardinal Cushing School in Hanover, MA, and I attend Bible study at St. Mary's Church. Currently, part of my time is spent being a family caregiver. I became an Associate in 2010 and cherish my relationship with the Sisters and other Associates.
