Requests not granted
    can be given up to God.
  Let surrender rule.

Ask nothing and refuse nothing, unless you judge it absolutely necessary after having prayed to God. Even in that case let it be done as a simple proposal together with a complete resignation whether this proposal is accepted or not. Maxim 37

In difficulty complain not about others.
                      Look only to self.

Never complain about anyone by yourself. Maxim 38

Give yourself to God
    and give gladly to others.
  Do it constantly.

Be nothing to yourself and be utterly given to God and to the neighbor. Maxim 39
