

Theresa Weeks, CSJA

I was born in North Dakota. When I was 13 years old, my mother and I moved to Colorado. When I graduated from high school, I went into the Air Force. The first time that I flew a plane was to Lackland, AFB, Texas. I always had a passion for traveling and was immensely fortunate to do so. I moved a lot – to Washington, DC, New Jersey, New York, Philadelphia and, California. When I was discharged from the Air Force after 20 years of active service, I went to Denver where I married my husband Wayne Sr and had four children – Wayne, Jr, Dean, Brenda, and Marilyn born in in different areas of the country. We moved to Germany and England, then on to North Carolina, and finally New Mexico. After a most beautiful trip to Rome in 2003, I think that traveling is over. Although I always went to Mass on Sunday's, I was never very involved in Church activities. In 2007, I began scheduling people to clean the Church, as well as those who would visit the nursing homes and the home bound. I am involved with this ministry to the hidebound, visiting and bringing communion. In 2012, Anna Negro invited me to attend “meetings of the Sisters of St. Joseph Associates”. I have been an associate since 2013. Sister Ann leads very inspirational meetings, which help to increase my own faith and enables me to reach out to help my neighbors.
