Mary Gaudet, CSJA

Early on, as my dear parents taught us about God's love for us, we also learned that caring for and sharing with others was how we grew as loving children of God. Our house was always an all-inclusive house where everybody was welcome. For as long as I can remember, I have been blessed with boundless energy and a sharing heart. Each chapter of my adult life has included a different type of service to others. Becoming an associate has greatly broadened me in so many ways, especially in trying to live out of the awareness of God's gifts and God's presence in others.
